

STRIKE PEACE AT NEW JAPAN REGIME BAYONNE DEFERRED FRIENDLY TO U. S. BY SERIOUS RIOTS SAYS AMBASSADOR

POLICE RAID MEETING AS LEAD-
ER SPEAKS AND FRESH DIS-ORDERS BREAK OUT.

(International News Service.)
Bayonne, Oct. 16.—A meeting of Standard Oil strikers broke up in a row today. M. F. Trakimis, chairman of the strike committee, was arrested while he was making an inflammatory speech, announcing he would prosecute the strike "with every inch of his blood and every ounce of his flesh."

As the police seized him, rioting broke out. Prospects for a settlement of the strike seem dim today.

ATTEMPT MADE ON LIFE OF BAYONNE OFFICER.
(International News Service.)
Bayonne, Oct. 16.—Police Inspector Daniel Cadogan, who had received several anonymous letters threatening his life, early today had a narrow escape when three shots whizzed by his head burying themselves in a wall behind him. The shots were believed to have been fired from the roof of a house. The police found no trace of the would-be assassin.

Norman Prince, U. S. Aviator, Meets Death

Paris, Oct. 16.—Norman Prince, the American aviator who died yesterday, was shot in an air duel with a German aviator. It was learned here today. His death resulted as much from the bullet wound as he received from the injuries he sustained when landing. The bullet from the enemy aviator struck him in the body.

Prince made a gallant attempt to effect a safe landing and kept his machine under control until he had almost reached the ground. Then, weakened from loss of blood, he collapsed and the aeroplane dashed to earth. Both the aviator's legs were broken by the fall.

Ruffianly Democrats!

Disturb Candidate Hughes and His Lady Campaigners, Walls G. O. P. Chairman.

(International News Service.)
New York, Oct. 16.—William R. Wilcox, national republican chairman, declared today that the democrats were guilty of "organized ruffianism." Mr. Wilcox mentioned no names but declared that it was evident from the interruption and disturbances in the big republican rallies all over the country a systematic attack is being made to discourage republican leaders. He asserted that it was the last resort of a desperate cause. Mr. Wilcox mentioned incidents, among them some unpleasant ones, that have marred the western trip of the republican women on the Hughes special.

Vance McCormick, chairman of the democratic national committee, was in Chicago, and no one at democratic headquarters would discuss Wilcox's charges.

LOCAL COTTON MARKET IS HIGHEST IN ALL ALABAMA

The local cotton market is the highest in Alabama. It is not only the highest now, but it has been all season. Saturday cotton sold on the streets here for 17 1/2 cents per pound, which was in excess of the price paid anywhere else in the commonwealth. Local buyers are bidding against each other in that same gentle spirit with which the British and the Germans are meeting on the battle front. In consequence, cotton is being brought here from a radius of 50 miles around.

Troup, Son of Dr. F. L. Carswell, Passes Away

Beautiful Funeral Service for Beloved Boy is Held Sunday Afternoon.

The funeral of Troup Carswell, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Carswell, who died Saturday night, was held Sunday afternoon at the Central Methodist church. The interment took place at City cemetery.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. R. I. Walston, pastor of the church, who told of the beautiful life of the boy. Young girls served as singers in the choir. Each member of the Sunday school class of Mrs. Samuel Blackwell, of which the lad was a devoted member, filed by the casket and placed on it a flower.

The active pallbearers were John Green, Carlisle Blackwell, Robert T. Sheppard, Harvey Dillehay, William Hamilton and Will Stephenson.

The honorary pallbearers were young friends of Troup. They were Brentz Preuit, Jr., Eugene Morrow, Oscar Morrow, Walter Morris, Ernest Bureh and Chas. Walston.

The funeral, because of the tender age and great popularity of the deceased, was one of the saddest ever witnessed here. The boy was only 9 years of age. He became ill several days ago and pneumonia finally developed. The shock of the untimely death aroused the community and the bereaved family has the deep sympathy of the Twin Cities.

Socialist Banner is Displayed Here Now

A political banner that is attracting much attention is that of the socialist party. This ensign is suspended across the old New Decatur Hotel balcony and is 40 feet in length and three feet wide.

Nearly 600 letters are skillfully hand-painted upon it, the work of Fred Genaty, a local socialist. It is said that it took Mr. Genaty 16 hours to complete the job, which is a work of art, according to those who have seen it. The banner contains the names of all the socialist candidates for the offices of Morgan county, the congressional candidate for the Eighth district and the candidates for president and vice president of the United States.

The slogan on the banner is: "Feed America First. To reduce the cost of living let the people own the trusts."

SUBMARINE BASE MAY BE LOCATED ON MAINE COAST

DESTRUCTION OF FISH TRAP BY MYSTERIOUS EXPLOSION IS INVESTIGATED.

(International News Service.)
East Machias, Me., Oct. 16.—Federal secret service agents were reported today to be making an investigation of the mysterious explosion that destroyed the fish trap of Carroll Denison, in the middle of the East Machias river early Sunday morning.

Denison declared no explosives were stored in the building. Efforts have been made to connect the explosion with a supposed German submarine base in this section.

The fact that the United States destroyer McDougall has been very active in this vicinity added to the mystery in this respect. So far no direct connection between the two has been made.

NAVY DEPARTMENT ORDERS FULL INQUIRY.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Oct. 16.—Acting Secretary of the Navy Admiral Benson today announced that the navy department had ordered a complete investigation of the mysterious explosion at East Machias, Maine, on the theory that some violation of American neutrality may be involved.

New York, Oct. 16.—Contrary to the report brought here by the British steamer Bovic, the Scandinavian-American liner Helligolav reported by wireless today that she had not sighted any German submarines on her voyage. The telegram was signed by Captain Holst.

Three Men With Three Legs are Convicted

Three men with just three legs between them were among those tried at the fall term of the Limestone county circuit court last week, according to local lawyers. The men, two whites and one negro, were charged with violating the prohibition laws. They were convicted by Solicitor D. C. Almon, and given road sentences. All three of the men were one-legged.

PADUCAH, KY., MOB KILL NEGRO RAPIST AND SYMPATHIZER WHILE JUDGE TALKS AT WILLOUGHBY

CRIME INFURIATED TOWN AND NEGROES ON STREETS ARE BADLY BEATEN.

MOB CONTROLS TOWN

BLACKS EXECUTED NEAR TOWN
AFTER WOMAN IDENTIFIES THE ASSAILANT.

(International News Service.)
Paducah, Ky., Oct. 16.—An infuriated mob of more than 500 persons stormed the county jail shortly after noon today and lynched two negroes within two miles of the city. After the bodies were cut down they were thrown in a burning brush heap and cremated.

The lynching followed a forenoon of terror during which the mob was practically in control of the city. One of the negroes, Frank Kinley, was accused of having attacked Mrs. Etta Rose last Friday night. The mob took him to the Rose home, two miles from the city and she identified him as her assailant.

The other negro, Jess Thornhill, was hanged because he boldly declared that he would have committed the same crime.

The mob which lynched the two negroes formed early this morning. With its ranks constantly increasing as it marched to the jail the leaders demanded that Kinley be turned over to them.

The sheriff refused and turned in a call for the police reserves. They came, but were powerless in the face of the mob's overwhelming numbers. Meanwhile Judge Reed of the circuit court was sent for. He came and for more than one hour addressed the mob from the court house steps pleading with the leaders to abandon their purpose.

Speakers from the ranks of the mob also mounted the steps and harangued the mob to finish the task upon which it had set out.

Many negroes were severely beaten on the streets.

DOLLAR BILLS GIVEN AWAY TOMORROW AT MASONIC.

Did you find your name in Saturday's Albany-Decatur Daily? If not, search thoroughly through today and tomorrow's issue, as there are yet a large number of unpublished and yours may be among the number. Who is it that wouldn't be glad to get one of these new crisp dollar bills—it is just like getting money from home.

Instructions:—If you find your name today or tomorrow, or if you have already found it in Saturday's paper, save the paper that your name appears in and take it with you to the opening of Booster Week Tuesday night at the Masonic. If your name is called out and you are in the theatre with the paper in your hand, all you have to do is to hold the paper up and you'll get one of the dollar bills. There will be several dollar bills given, and you may be one of the lucky ones. There can't be too many people reading the Albany-Decatur Daily and it is of special value on this occasion.

DR. R. P. TAYLOR OF LEEDS BEGINS BIG REVIVAL SERVICES WHILE JUDGE TALKS AT WILLOUGHBY

QUALIFICATIONS OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE IS SUBJECT OF INITIAL SERMON.

SPRIT'S BAPTISM NEEDED

LONG FACES AND GROANS ARE DE-TESTED BY THE SPEAKER.

(International News Service.)
Poole, characterized Rev. Dr. R. P. Taylor, of Leeds, Ala., when he preached at the Willoughby Presbyterian church last night and set forth the qualifications most essential to Christian leadership. He came to the Twin Cities at the earnest solicitation of Rev. W. B. Strong and his congregation to conduct a series of revival meetings, which will be held at 2:30 p. m. and 7 p. m. each day for one week at least.

In introducing the visiting minister, Rev. Strong said: "Brother Taylor comes to us to do the preaching in our meeting and to do all the good he can in every way he can. The doors of our church are wide open and we invite the co-operation of all."

After a number of songs, led by the choir and a special selection by the Laxson quartette, Mr. Taylor announced his text from the gospel story of the third appearance of Christ after His resurrection—the time He found St. Peter and certain other disciples making an unsuccessful effort at fishing on the Sea of Galilee. As a foreword the preacher pointed out the failure of these fishermen as due to the absence in their plans of the Savior's directing power, and to their going back to their old job of fishing after fish, when Christ had previously commissioned them "to become fishers of men." In this connection the preacher said: "Let me drop this thought to you, my friends, that a person who has once tasted of the love of God, will never get any real happiness or joy out of the things of the world."

The Sermon in Part.

"Gospel of John, chapter 21, verses 15, 16, 17. 'So when they had dined Jesus sayeth unto Simon Peter, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me? And he (Peter) said unto Him, 'Lord, thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee.' And He said unto him 'feed my sheep.'"

"At this time the disciples were greatly discouraged. They had verily expected Jesus to be an earthly king. They had thought He would lift the yoke of Roman oppression, drive the Roman soldiers from their country, and restore the glory of the great kings, David and Solomon. But what they actually saw was their king, a man in tears, split upon by the mob and rejected by the authorities, and later as rebuking Peter, when that disciple made a show of force to rescue Him on his way to the cross, and last of all, his humiliating death."

"Were not all these things calculated to discourage? So Peter decided to go back to his old job of fishing. I want you to get that. Would it not seem an impertinence for a stranger to come and tell them how to fish. But when they were directed they were wise enough to obey. Then it was that one of their number discerned that it was the Master who stood near. Now it was Peter who acted first. I like him; he was so impulsive and ready to take action. He went toward Christ."

"I thank God that Jesus did not say to Peter, 'Your cruel denial of me merits that I put you out and away from me.' I think Jesus Christ did not even mention Peter's denial. But He comes to him with the soul-stirring question, 'Do you love me?' Christ always appeals to the heart, rather than to the conduct. Christ wished to draw from Peter a confession of love. And Peter, with the memory of his cruel denial fresh on the minds of all, answers his thrice rejected Master out of an honest heart and acknowledges his love for Him. It is remarkable that Jesus required no further declaration of the disciple's faith."

The Same Question.

"I want to say to you that Jesus

DESPERATE DRIVE BY RUSSIAN ARMY TO AID ROUMANIA

Double Offensive to Ease Pressure of Teuton Attacks by Rome and Petrograd

LEMBURG AND TRIESTE ARE THREATENED

Violent Fighting on Somme Front With Successes for French are Reported

(International News Service.)

London, Oct. 16.—The anxiety that the allies feel over the fate of Roumania is shown by the fact that they are on the offensive on four fronts. Hard blows have been struck on the Somme front where the counter assaults of the Germans have led to a big engagement. On the eastern front the Russians are pounding the Austro-German lines in Volhynia and Galicia. Vienna announces officially that the Italian drive has been brought to a standstill, but advices from Rome tell of continued fighting. In Macedonia the allies are meeting with stubborn resistance. The Servians have made some gains, but at heavy cost. British artillery is shelling the Bulgarian city of Sere. Gen. Von Falkenhayn's army that invaded Roumania has advanced six miles. In Odbrudja fighting is in progress all along the Danube with Von Mackensen trying to find a weak place to break through.

(International News Service.)

London, Oct. 16.—Russia and Italy have joined hands in an effort to weaken the Teuton pressure against Roumania.

Following the renewal of the Italian offensive the Russians are making violent attacks in Volhynia and Galicia. Dispatches from Petrograd today dwell upon the fierceness of the fighting in the Carpathians and on the Stokhod river in Volhynia. The effect of this double drive is to prevent the Austro-Germans from sending reinforcements to the aid of Gen. Von Falkenhayn and Von Mackensen, and to compel the Teutons if possible, to move troops from the Transylvanian and Dobrudja theatres of war to meet the new pressure.

The resumption of the drive toward Lemburg by the Russians and Trieste by the Italians already is showing results. British artillery is pounding the important Greek city of Sere, which is held by the Bulgarians.

VIOLENT FIGHTING ON SOMME FRONT REPORTED.

(International News Service.)
Paris, Oct. 16.—Another outburst of violent fighting has developed on the Somme river front north of the river. The French extended their drive and have penetrated Sully Saillisset, the French war office announced today. The Germans launched some powerful counter attacks and the fighting which first developed is continuing. After entering the German positions at Sully the French engaged the Germans in the streets and were able to occupy some of the houses along the Bapaume highway.

Circuit Court Opens Fall Term at 1 P. M.

Judge Robert Brickell Faces Unusually Heavy Civil Docket.

The fall term of the Morgan county circuit court began this afternoon at 1 o'clock, Judge Robert Brickell coming from Huntsville on the morning train to take up the docket.

The cases set for hearing this afternoon are as follows:

Newcomb Bros. vs. J. H. Wiggins; J. B. Shelton vs. Thos. R. Shipp; T. S. Lampkin adm. vs. Alice Bridgeforth; E. A. Orendorf vs. E. L. Prince; S. W. Sherman vs. Hitt Lumber Co., three cases; Merchants Saving Bank vs. S. L. Sherrill; P. R. Hutson vs. J. C. Eggleston; Morgan County Grocery Co. vs. R. N. McCulloch; Pfeiffer Bros. vs. Warrick & Hobbs; Bennie Barrington vs. L. & N.; Citizens National Bank vs. G. F. Buchheit; Worley Fruit & Produce Co. vs. J. W. Bartee.

The remainder of the docket is unusually heavy.

Dr. Mays Honored in Four Directions

Dr. Livingston T. Mays, pastor of the Central Baptist church, has received four distinct honors within the past week. He was invited to address the Maryland Baptist convention at Baltimore, and will leave tomorrow to fill the engagement. He was requested to contribute four articles to "The Teacher," a Sunday school publication of the Southern Baptist church. He accepted an invitation to deliver an address at Howard College on "The Opportunities and Responsibilities of the Twentieth Century Ministry," and has also accepted an invitation to deliver the opening sermon at the Alabama Baptist convention, to be held at Mobile in November.

BIRMINGHAM SCORED FOR ITS NITRATE PLANT ATTITUDE.

The Age-Herald has taken Birmingham to task for its passive disinclination to aid in securing the location of the $20,000,000 nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals. The charge of the Age-Herald that Birmingham has been exceedingly indifferent to the needs of this section, supinely unconscious of the fact that even its own selfish interest should prompt aggressive action, is unfortunately true. It has been noticeably true in the past that the interest shown by the Magic City in the northern section of the state has been confined almost entirely to the refunding of railroad fare to such shoppers as go there to spend the money that could be well invested at home, a ballyhooing for attendance at the state fair—a trade drawing scheme entirely—and almost open hostility to corporations and folks who have shown a desire to develop this end of the state. In fact, Birmingham has adopted the dog in the manger attitude of appealing to Alabama to help make Birmingham, without in any way committing Birmingham to the task of aiding in the making of Alabama.

The Birmingham press has not shared this narrow view. The newspapers there are ably edited and directed and are unanimously friendly to North Alabama. In Montgomery, now, it is different to some extent, for the Journal has openly opposed the harnessing of Muscle Shoals, and has never seemed to have any clear realization of the magnitude of the problem or the plan. That the Birmingham press is doing its full duty is exemplified by the very fact that the Age-Herald would chide its local Chamber of Commerce for its magnificent capacity for aiding Birmingham only.

The Age-Herald editorial was as follows:

Has Birmingham lost all interest in the proposed nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals? Is this great and growing city unaware of the fact that the plant to be built by the United States government would, if located on the Tennessee river, be of incalculable benefit not only to this immediate district, but to the whole south as well?

In a letter written by Col. A. M. Shook, chairman of the Muscle Shoals association, to the editor of the Age-Herald occurs this sentiment: "The most staggering blow we have received in the prosecution of this great work is the absolute indifference and lack of interest on the part of Birmingham."

Colonel Shook may have been misled by appearances, for surely the business men of Birmingham are keenly alive to the advantages that will accrue from a government nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals. However, Birmingham should not allow the impression to be created that it is not doing everything in its power to assist the Muscle Shoals association in its fight for the plant.

When the first meeting of the association was held in Nashville last July it was estimated that at least $15,000 would be needed to present the claims of Muscle Shoals to the government properly. The Tennessee River Improvement association promised to give $5,000; the city of Nashville $3,000. It was thought that Birmingham and Memphis would each subscribe $3,000. Individuals and small towns around Nashville promised $1,000 to complete the necessary $15,000.

Chairman Shook states that during the three months that have elapsed not a dollar of this promised amount has been paid in except by Nashville and some of the small subscribers, making a total of less than $4,000. The association at a recent meeting authorized him to let the contract for the Muscle Shoals map and booklet "only when he shall be assured that there is actually in hand $5,000 in cash."

The situation is certainly disappointing. Former Gov. Emmet O'Neal, vice chairman of the association for Alabama, has been asked to take the matter up at once with the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce. No doubt speedy action will be the result. It would be a reflection on this city if it failed to co-operate wholeheartedly with the association. The small sum of $3,000, while not actually subscribed, was tentatively offered by the local representatives at the Nashville meeting. No time should be lost in making good the promise given.

From a strictly selfish point of view, the Muscle Shoals nitrate plant would be a tremendous asset to Birmingham. This city's industries would supply most of the materials used in its construction. Furthermore, after the plant was completed its output of cheap fertilizer would greatly increase the productivity of the agricultural lands tributary to Birmingham, and it is estimated, would pay the city equally more than the entire cost of the nitrate plant.

But aside from selfish considerations, pride in Alabama and the desire to advance the interests of the South should lead Birmingham to make every effort possible to obtain the nitrate plant for Muscle Shoals.

PARKER REMAINS LOYAL TO THE PROGRESSIVE CAUSE.

Although the Progressive party has been betrayed by its arch leader, who stands indicted before the world on the charge of attempted party infanticide, the organization is not entirely without leadership, while the principles for which it stands are still dear to those who forswore democratic and republican allegiance for some better reason than that they desired to see William Howard Taft defeated for re-election as president of the United States.

John M. Parker, of New Orleans, nominated for vice-president by the same convention that bestowed the higher honor upon Theodore Roosevelt is true to the party and to its platform. He had unusual opportunity to make this plain in accepting the nomination last Saturday, and his speech will be the clarion call to progressives to rally to the support of a cause that is yet far from lost. Mr. Parker has ample reason for refusing longer to follow the Roosevelt guidance, and in his address he confounded the former Bull Moose leader with his own words. A news report of the speech, in this connection, says:

Mr. Parker quoted Col. Roosevelt as saying in 1913, "that I am for this cause to fight to the end . . . while life lasts," and that "I will never abandon the principles to which we Progressives have pledged ourselves, and I will never abandon the men and women who draw around me to battle for these principles."

He also quoted George W. Perkins as stating he was opposed to returning to the republican party because "it had been more reactionary than ever."

The most artful dodger in the political world could not explain Roosevelt's desertion of his party as other than the deliberate act of a Judas. For documentary evidence, Mr. Roosevelt himself is quoted. He has gone on record, and that record must stand. Under conditions like these, with Parker advocating the same principles which he stood four years ago, is there room to doubt that he will wield a potent influence in many of the doubtful states? His appeal to the progressives to vote for the party candidates, where there are any, and to vote for Wilson—the real progressive—in states where there are no party candidates, will have its effect. That effect will be the re-election of Woodrow Wilson as president of the United States.

STATE PRESS VIEWS

We note with pleasure that our friend and brother of the press, Hon. T. H. Alexander, of the Albany-Decatur Daily, is an applicant for the appointment to the postmastership of the city of Albany (formerly New Decatur). The change of name from New Decatur to Albany necessitates the appointment of a new postmaster. We understand that Mr. Alexander has the endorsement of Congressman Almon, which is tantamount to appointment. Mr. Alexander is a brilliant newspaper man, and we feel sure he will measure up to the full standard of efficiency as postmaster of the newly created office. Our congratulations to both Mr. Alexander and Judge Almon.—Town Creek Booster.

In referring to the vacancy on the federal bench in the Southern Alabama district the Albany-Decatur Daily says "no broken-down politicians should be considered for the place." In line with this declaration the Daily does not mention any of the prominent citizens of A.-D. for appointment.—Sheffield Standard.

SCALDED TO ANKLES BY HOT WATER, SUES TANNERY FOR $3,000

Ira L. Marion, an employee of the American Oak Leather Company, who was recently scalded by hot water in the plant, has filed suit in circuit court against the company for $3,000 damages.

Marion alleges that he was working in August in the "leach" room of the tannery where 24 boiling tubs are kept. He was ordered by the foreman, he said, to cut off the steam from one of these tubs. In going on this errand the plaintiff claims that one of the tubs had overflowed and in the poor light he stepped in boiling water to his ankles, causing his feet to be burned and blistered. It is alleged in the suit that the overflow of water was caused by a defect in the machinery of the plant, and also because of the fact that the floor of the room had been filled up with wood chips so that the water could not escape through the cracks. The accident took place at night and poor lights in the plant were also blamed.

The suit was filed by Tennis Tidwell.

Political Fight of Army and Guard May be Soon Renewed

(International News Service.)

Washington, Oct. 16.—The fight between the national guard and the army which resulted in defeat for the regulars at the last session of congress when the guard politicians succeeded in forcing payment to the federal government to the guard for drill service is to be renewed.

The political elements in the guard look with longing eyes on the $13,000,000 in the army bill for the development of aviation. Already it has started the wheel operating with the intention of getting the lion's share of it. As a result friction has resulted between the regulars and the guard.

A congressional investigation is threatened and army officials who are without pull enough to dominate the situation admit they are apprehensive of the result.

Some veteran officials declare that from now on "tail can be expected to wag the dog," and that the national guard will be all powerful in the nation's military affairs.

comes to you tonight with the same heart searching question.

"As a result of Peter's confession he was called out into service. Now service is what we are saved for. Jesus calls to service. The only use He has for us is service. But before He can call us to service we must be able to make the same answer that Peter did. A trained heart is always before a trained head. We have too many mechanical men and women in the church; all devoid of power. He serves best who loves most.

"The baptism of the Holy Spirit is absolutely necessary to a victorious Christian life. For love, patience and long suffering are alone the fruits of the Spirit. How shall we begin to serve? The smile, the hand shake, the word of cheer—anything that will put courage and holy determination into the hearts of our fellows.

As to the quality of service acceptable to God, the preacher told a story of the long ago, when women, and even men, wore wraps called "shawls." A woman gave away her old shawl after getting herself a new one. But she soon had a disquieting dream. It seemed that Jesus was approaching her, and He was wearing an old shawl. As He came nearer the unhappy woman saw that He was wearing her old cast away shawl. The woman protested that she did not give Him that shawl, but the Master replied, "What you gave to the least of these my brethren ye have given to Me." The preacher reminded that Christ was the final recipient of all we did and warned great care as to the quality of service rendered. It was reminded that Christ came to sympathize, not to criticize; that His work was constructive and not destructive. Finally the speaker said that his congregation was not to go about with a "long face and a groan," but to keep close up to the Master and "do with their might whatever their hands found to do."

GOD KNOWETH BEST.

Sometime, when all life's lessons have been learned,

And sun and stars forevermore have set,

The things which our weak judgments here have spurned,

The things o'er which we've grieved with lashes wet,

Shall flash before us out of life's dark night.

As stars shine most in deeper tints of blue,

And we shall see how all God's plans were right,

And how what seemed reproof was love most true.

And we shall see how, while we frown and sigh,

God's plans go on as best for you and me;

How, when we called, he answered not our cry.

Because his wisdom to the courts see.

And even as prudent parents disallow Too much of sweet to craving babyhood,

So God, perhaps, is keeping from us now,

Life's sweetest things because it seemeth good.

And if sometime commingled with life's wine,

We find the wormwood and rebel and shrink,

Be sure wiser hands than yours or mine

Pours out this portion for our lips to drink,

And if some friend we love is lying low,

Where human kisses cannot reach his face,

Oh, do not blame the loving Father so,

But wear your sorrow with obedient grace.

And thou shalt shortly learn that lengthened breath

Is not the richest boon God sends his friend,

And that, sometimes, e'en the sable pall of death

Contains the fairest gift His love can send,

If we could push ajar the gates of light,

And stand within and all God's workings see,

We could interpret all this doubt and strife

And for each mystery could find a key.

But not today; then be content, poor heart!

God's plans, like lilies pure and white, unfold;

We must not tear their close-shut leaves apart.

Time will reveal the calyxes of gold,

And if by patient toil we reach the land

Where tired feet with sandals loose shall rest,

Where we shall clearly know and understand,

I think we then shall say, God knew the best.

MRS. J. A. ROUNTREE FOR STATE PRESIDENT.

Mrs. J. A. Rountree, of Birmingham, is being endorsed throughout the state by the local chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy for the next presidency of the state division. Her home chapter, Pelham, has unanimously endorsed her, according to the Birmingham Age-Herald, and is calling upon the members of the organization throughout the state to support her for this position, which she so richly deserves. Her qualifications and brilliant intellect, as well as popularity is such that she would acquire herself most splendidly as president of the Alabama division.

Mrs. Sam Thompson returned Saturday from Chattanooga, where she was called by the illness of her sister, Mrs. Wilson, whom she left greatly improved.

Mrs. W. T. Lowe has returned from Birmingham, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. P. Lynch.

Mrs. Mollie West has returned from Nashville, where she visited her daughter, Miss Inez West.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zeitler have returned to Mooresville.

Miss Pearl Dutton returned from Vicksburg, Miss., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Landers, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carriger have returned from New Orleans and Bay St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Ross have named their little son Jack Lamar.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Swartzell and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Boeglen motored to Somerville Sunday afternoon, returning by way of Hartsville.

Hughes Replies to Democratic Charge

Says "Invisible Government" Didn't Rule While He Was Governor of New York.

(International News Service.)

Hastings, Neb., Oct. 16.—"The invisible government charge," which President Wilson laid at the door of the republican party came in for a sharp retort from Chas. E. Hughes as he swung through Nebraska today.

"Those who are going about mawking about 'invisible government' had better remember that while I was governor of New York there was no invisible government in that state," he told a large crowd of Nebraskans here.

The republican candidate pledged himself to fight against the pork barrel and denounced vigorously "democratic waste and false prosperity."

Large crowds greeted Gov. Hughes at each stop.

Amendment Endorsed by Rev. R. I. Walston

Pastor of Central Methodist Church Says Education Needs Local Taxation.

Endorsement of the educational amendment which will be voted on in Alabama Nov. 7 was given Sunday morning in a sermon at the Central Methodist church by Rev. R. I. Walston, the popular pastor.

It was one of the last sermons before the annual meeting of the Methodist state conference and Mr. Walston had been summing up the work of the past four years.

"Although I would not discuss politics per se in my pulpit," said Mr. Walston, "I want to turn aside long enough to congratulate the state of Alabama on at last bringing to a vote a local taxation amendment to better the schools of the state. Education certainly needs this aid."

Mr. Walston, in reviewing the work of the church since he has been here, said more than 200 members have been added to the church rolls.

Huntsville Boy of 17 Kills Boarder When Mother is Attacked

Huntsville, Oct. 16.—Ben Mathune, a farmer 36 years old, was shot and instantly killed late Saturday night by Floyd Taylor, a 17-year-old boy, after the former is said to have attacked the boy's mother and then the boy with a knife. Taylor fired one shot with a shotgun which struck Mathune in the jugular vein. The tragedy occurred at the Taylor home, where Mathune had been a boarder. It is claimed that Mathune had quit the place, but returned drunk and attacked the landlady. When he jerked her out on the front porch her son went to the rescue, and Mathune attacked him. The boy claims aMathune pulled a knife on him before the fatal shot was fired. Young Taylor is in jail.

CIRCUS COMING BEFORE LONG.

The coming of Sun Brothers' Great Railroad Shows and Allied Trained Wild Shows is an event of much great interest to the citizens of Morgan county. In a country having but few holidays and where work too often shuts out play, the advent of Sun Brothers' Shows is always hailed with delight.

Then it is that population of town and county turns out to celebrate and every incoming road by wagon, vehicle, automobile or train is filled with joyous throngs.

The people patronize Sun Brothers' Shows because they have been taught by experience that it is a great, meritorious and pleasing show from start to finish.

This big show will exhibit at Albany on Thursday, November 2. Two performances take place afternoon at 2 o'clock and at night at 8 o'clock, opening the doors for the reception of the public one hour earlier.

Latest Revolt In Mexico Is Alarming

State Department Fears Smuggling of Arms Across Border.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Oct. 16.—Confidential advisers detailing further developments in the impending new revolt against the Carranza government in Mexico caused renewed anxiety at the state department today. That the new movement is a formidable one is indicated by the care with which its organizers are proceeding.

It is known that there has been renewed activity along the border in smuggling into Mexico arms and ammunitions. While these illegal shipments go first to Carranza chieftains it is certain that their ultimate purpose is to replenish the supplies which very shortly will be turned against the first chief.

First Electric Battle Ship to be Built

(International News Service.)

Washington, Oct. 16.—Admiral Benson, acting secretary of the navy, today announced that the keel of the latest American dreadnaught, the California, would be laid at the Mare Island navy yard at San Francisco on Oct. 25. The California will be the first electrically driven dreadnaught in the American navy.

MARVIN RANKIN HOST TO BIBB-BAILLEY BRIDAL PARTY.

Last evening at the Hotel Lyons, Mr. Marvin Rankin was host at a dinner given for the Bibb-Bailley bridal party. The beautifully appointed table was centrally ornamented with a vase of pink carnations, supplemented at either end by other vases of the same spiky flower, the vases being festooned by graceful sprays of ferns. The place cards were bride heads and designated covers for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zeitler, Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Penney, Misses Josephine Bibb, Mary and Margaret Penick, Ivy May Cain, Messrs. Joseph Bibb, Zeno Bailey, Marvin Rankin and Robert Cain. The bride-elect wore an all gray costume of satin, veiled in Georgette crepe with occasional patches of marabon and a hat fashioned of metal lace and trimmed with marabon.

MRS. WILLIAM PEEBLES OF ATHENS, COMPLIMENTED.

Saturday, Mrs. James A. Duncan entertained at luncheon in compliment to Mrs. William Peebles, of Athens. The well appointed table was centered by a vase of rich crimson dahlias—gift flowers. Covers were laid for Mesdames J. T. Jones, E. W. Godbey, J. H. Donnell, H. N. Binford, Wm. Peebles and A. J. Harris.

Mrs. L. J. Rogers, of Eatonton, Ga., is a guest of Mrs. H. D. Grizzard at Flint.

Miss Marjorie Miller is quite ill at her home on Johnston street with a malarial attack.

Miss Ivey Mae Cain, of Madison, who spent the week-end as the guest of relatives here, returned home today.

New Swans Down Makes the Finest Biscuits

TEN cents worth of flour is worth more in nourishment than any food you can eat. There is more energy in a pound of flour than in a pound of meat.

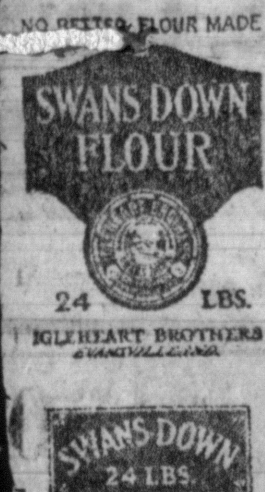

Sunshine in field and mill, scientific care and testing, and a perfect process of refining and grading have resulted in this wonderful new Swans Down Flour. Southern Indiana is particularly noted for the fine, soft winter wheat it grows. All Swans Down Flour is made from this wheat with all the excellence of healthful phosphates and gluten.

Better Health for Your Family

Flour of this finer, lighter quality not only assures you delicious bread, but also a thoroughly healthful, nutritious food.

Perhaps you already know our standard of excellence through Igleheart's "Self-Rising" Flour made from Swans Down—the short-cut to delicious pastries and hot breads.

GERMANS MAKE ATTEMPT TO RECOVER ON SOMME.

(International News Service.)
London, Oct. 16.—German troops on the Somme front made a powerful effort to win back some of their lost ground from the British last night but failed. The war office stated today that the Germans attacked in the vicinity of Schwaben redoubt, on the Thiepval-Courcelette line, but were repulsed with heavy losses. The British are attacking in an effort to throw a ring around Bapaume.

74 ENEMY AEROPLANES DESTROYED BY GERMANS.

(International News Service.)
Berlin, Oct. 16.—Seventy-four British and French aeroplanes were destroyed or captured by the Germans in September, according to official figures given out today. Fifty-three of the machines were British and 21 were French. Twenty-three of the aeroplanes were burned and the inmates burned beyond identification.

GERMANS CLAIM ALL ATTACKS WERE REPULSED.

(International News Service.)
Berlin, Oct. 16.—The German war office today stated that British troops yesterday in a renewal of the onslaughts against the German positions northeast of Guencourt entered German first line trenches, but were ejected by counter attacks. The statement asserts that French forces attacking west of Sailly to Sailly-lez-Walleron were pushed back south of this village by vigorous German counter attacks. In the eastern theatre violent Russian assaults were also repulsed.

AMUSEMENTS

SHOT UP THE TOWNS OF ALBANY AND DECATUR AND NOBODY SERIOUSLY HURT.

The Dixie Amusement Co. special photographers have been in our cities for two weeks photographing all our home industries, business houses, schools, residences, and all points of interest and progress about our cities, which will be shown on the screen at the Masonic theatre during Booster Week, which starts off in a blaze of glory tomorrow night. We are all proud of the coming generation, and a special feature of the Booster Week entertainment will be the pictures of all the babies, children and young folks. The most laughable feature of the entire week's program will be the snapshot pictures of the older folks, caught unawares. In addition to the children's pictures and home scenes there will be shown each day splendid reels of motion pictures. A nice souvenir will be presented to every child who is in the theatre when their picture comes on the screen. There will be funny contests for the boys and girls each night, and among the most amusing will be the "Charlie Chaplin" contest. Come and see your home cities illustrated. Admission 5 and 10 cents.

"FAIR AND WARMER" AT THE MASONIC THURSDAY, OCT. 19.

"Fair and Warmer," the Avery Hopwood farce classic with which Selwyn & Company made by all odds the biggest hit of the season last year in New York, will appear here for a limited engagement this season. When Avery Hopwood wrote "Seven Days" and "Nobody's Widow" he was called "one of the most promising farce writers in America."

When his "Fair and Warmer" appeared, there was no more talk of promise. He was called "America's finest master of farce." His trick of cumulative interest, ludicrous situation, brilliant line and engaging characterization is all at its best in "Fair and Warmer."
